Overstand is an online platform that connects people who need help with people who have the skills and time to offer assistance. The platform is based on the belief that everyone has something to offer and that everyone deserves to live a life of dignity and respect.

Overstand was founded in 2015 by two social workers who saw firsthand the challenges that people face when they need help. They realized that there was a need for a platform that would make it easy for people to connect with each other and offer assistance in a way that was both safe and respectful.

Overstand is a free and easy-to-use platform. People who need help can create a profile and post a request for assistance. People who have the skills and time to offer assistance can create a profile and browse requests for assistance.

When someone offers assistance to a request, the two parties can communicate with each other through the Overstand platform. They can arrange a time to meet in person or online to provide the assistance.

Overstand has been used by people to get help with a wide range of tasks, including:

- Running errands
- Providing transportation
- Helping with childcare
- Offering emotional support
- Teaching new skills

Overstand has made a positive impact on the lives of many people. The platform has helped people to get the help they need to live independently and to achieve their goals. Overstand has also helped to build stronger communities by connecting people who want to help with people who need help.

If you are interested in volunteering your time to help others, Overstand is a great platform to get started. You can create a profile and browse requests for assistance. When you find a request that you are interested in, you can offer your assistance and connect with the person who posted the request.

Overstand is a great way to make a difference in the lives of others. By volunteering your time, you can help people to get the help they need to live independently and to achieve their goals. You can also help to build

How Overstand Works

Overstand is a simple and easy-to-use platform. Here is how it works:

1. Create a profile. The first step is to create a profile on the Overstand website. You will need to provide your name, email address, and a password. You can also add a photo and a description of your skills and interests.
2. Browse requests for assistance. Once you have created a profile, you can start browsing requests for assistance. You can filter requests by location, category, and keywords. You can also search for requests by specific skills or interests.
3. Offer your assistance. When you find a request that you are interested in, you can offer your assistance. You can do this by clicking on the "Offer Assistance" button. You will then need to provide some basic information about yourself and your skills. You can also include a message to the person who posted the request.
4. Connect with the person who posted the request. Once you have offered your assistance, you can connect with the person who posted the request. You can do this by sending them a message through the Overstand platform. You can arrange a time to meet in person or online to provide the assistance.

Overstand is a safe and respectful platform. All users are required to follow the Overstand Community Guidelines. The guidelines prohibit any form of harassment, discrimination, or violence. Overstand also has a team of moderators who review all requests for assistance and offers of assistance to ensure that they are appropriate.
